Rights

- A. Right to Representation. Pursuant to Chapter II, Section 9(E) of this Code and upon certifying financial need, parent(s) named as a Respondent may receive legal representation from the Office of the Public Defender and shall have the opportunity to introduce evidence, to be heard on his or her own behalf, to examine witnesses, and to be informed of possible consequences if the allegations of the petition are found to be true.
- B. Right to Notice. All parties are to be informed of their parental rights pertaining to removal of the child from the home, a change in the child's placement, and any other determination affecting visitation with their children. All parties shall be entitled to advance copies of court pleadings, including petitions and reports, unless deemed inappropriate by the Court.
