IN THE MATTER OF: ICWA-18-0001

Children: Emiliano Randall, DOB: 01/16/12

Parent: Margaret Randall

Resident: San Carlos Youth Home

Education: Rice Middle School (8th grade)

Education/Sports:

This is to report that Emiliano Randall is 13 years old with an Individual Educational Plan and attends Rice School as an 8th grader. Emiliano participated in football and was released because an incident that occurred at school with a student. Emiliano is now participating in basketball.

Youth Home placement:

Emiliano has been residing at the San Carlos Youth Home since August 21, 2025. Since his placement, he has had multiple incidents at school, the Youth Home and leaving the Youth Home premises without permission. The San Carlos Police was called numerous times for his safety and others in the home.

Behavior Health/Counseling services/Medications/Diagnoses:

Emiliano receives minimum services offered by San Carlos Wellness on Mondays and Wednesdays at school. Horizon behavior health is also providing services and due to our limited staff here at Social Services depending on availability to transport him to Globe, his services are not consistent, but sporadic. CFT meetings occur weekly, except during this past holiday. Emiliano was meeting with the school counselor, but refuses to see his counselor for several weeks now. Emiliano keeps his Psychiatry appointments at the San Carlos hospital. On October 23, 2025, Emiliano's medication had changed to help him from sleeping during the mornings at school. Emiliano is currently taking five medications given at 7 a.m., and 7 p.m.

Emiliano Randall has five (5) diagnoses by Dr. Silberman.

Maricopa Juvenile:

On September 15, 2025, Maricopa County Juvenile Court has filed a petition alleging Emiliano committed delinquent or incorrigible acts while at Oasis behavioral health. On October 14, 2025, a release order with conditions to the San Carlos Tribal Social Services. Maricopa Probation Officer, Valerie Gallegos, recommend a psychological evaluation which was scheduled on December 11, 2025, at Globe Public Library; and on December 18, 2025, Maricopa recommend a risk assessment be completed.
